The Larrabee Scholarship – Technology Tips and/or Tricks Award

Established in 2014, in memory of former Augusoft employee Leslie Larrabee, The Larrabee Scholarship, recognizes continuing education professionals for their innovative use of technology in lifelong learning and how they have used a technology tip and/or trick that has made their work-life easier. Continuing Education professionals from both credit and non-credit programs are eligible to apply. Applicants must share their uses of this tip and/or trick in various forms of technology for non-credit enrollment, services, research, reporting, sales, marketing or administrative projects. Up to two scholarship awards are given each year. Scholarship winner(s) will receive (1) complimentary registration to the Annual Augusoft Lumens User Summit.

If applicants need to provide additional documents to explain their Tip and/or Trick they can send these document(s) in PDF form emailed to scholarship@augusoft.net.
