Key Challenges – Qualitative Responses

What key challenges does your program face?

- If using non-continuing education-specific software (i.e. Banner[®], Colleague[®], PeopleSoft, etc.):
 - Administrative burden trying to conform to the institution's for-credit systems and practices
 - Lack of easy, user-friendly registration system negatively impacting registrations and revenue results
 - Lack of any meaningful analytics to use in making business decisions
 - Not able to adequately manage custom and/or contract training
- Increasing registrations and lowering cancelations
- Competition from for-profit and other institutions
- Growing with minimal staff
- No or little marketing support to grow the continuing education program
- Institution not agile enough to respond to market needs and competition from for-profit providers
